Josh and his wonderful team provided a wonderful meal for our wedding on the 2nd July. We had a beef roast and 2 sharing tables. The food was 1st class. Our guests said "it was the best wedding food they had ever had". The trio of puddings were amazing and in the evening we had the street pizza oven. Everything was delicious. The staff were fantastic and from the start when we first met the team to the finish it was faultless. We would 100% recommend them.

Thank you again
Clive & Michelle Fletcher

Arrival

Let's start

Arrival_24/25

An arrival reception at a wedding is typically held immediately following the wedding ceremony, as guests arrive at the reception venue. It serves as a welcoming and socializing period, allowing guests to mingle, catch up with old friends, and meet new ones.

The arrival reception can take many forms, depending on the style and theme of the wedding. It may be a formal affair with a champagne reception and passed hors d'oeuvres, or it may be a more relaxed event with a buffet or food stations.

Typically, guests are greeted with a receiving line, where the newlyweds and their families greet each guest individually. This is a great opportunity for guests to congratulate the couple and offer their well wishes.

During the arrival reception, background music is usually played to create a festive atmosphere. Guests can enjoy drinks and light refreshments while they socialize and wait for the newlyweds to arrive. Often, the wedding party will also use this time to take formal photographs, so guests can enjoy the reception without interruption.

Overall, the arrival reception sets the tone for the rest of the wedding celebration, providing a warm welcome and an opportunity for guests to relax and enjoy the festivities.

Choose one instead of 4 canapés

The term "interactive" can be used to describe canapés that are served in a way that encourages guests to engage with the food in some way, such as by assembling the canapé themselves or by adding toppings or condiments to the canapé themselves. This can create a more engaging and interactive experience for guests, making the event more memorable and enjoyable.
